CATHAOIRLEACH'S AWARDS 2018

Background to the Awards

Sligo County Council recognise the work that the Community and Voluntary sector carry out on a day to day basis and believes that this grouping is one of the most important sectors in the county as they contribute to the "Quality of Life" of all citizens. Therefore, every year the Council distributes grants and provides assistance to various community and voluntary groups.

Cathaoirleach Awards 2018

The Cathaoirleach's Awards honour volunteers who have given special service to their community in County Sligo. The awards recognise the role played by many individuals and groups in helping to create a strong and vibrant community.

Outlined below are the proposed Categories of awards for 2018. These categories attempt to capture the diverse nature of the activities undertaken at ground level in the area of community and voluntary activity in Sligo.

Award Categories

- Arts and Culture
- Young Enterprise
- Environment/Heritage
- Community (individual)
- Community (group)
- Spirit of Sligo Award
- Sports
- Schools (group/class)

The Cathaoirleach's Awards go some way to recognising the involvement of individuals and groups in their communities, how they can influence others to become involved and active in their communities.
